TYPES OF EMPLOYMENT:

FULL-TIME EMPLOYMENT (CAREER/CAREER-CONDITIONAL):

A person employed in the competitive service for other than temporary, term or indefinite employment is appointed as a career or career-conditional employee subject to a probationary period during the first year of service. Must serve 3 years of substantially continuous creditable service to become a career employee. Career/Career-Conditional employees are entitled to health and life insurance, Federal Employees Retirement Systems (FERS), and are eligible to apply for promotional opportunities.

SEASONAL EMPLOYMENT:

Seasonal employment is a permanent career/career-conditional appointment. Employees are hired on a work-as-needed basis during periods of heavy workload with a minimum service period of six months per year. Persons selected for seasonal positions may eventually convert to full-time work schedules. Seasonal employees are entitled to the same fringe benefits as permanent employees, i.e., health and life insurance, Federal Employees Retirement Systems (FERS), and are eligible to apply for promotional opportunities.

TERM EMPLOYMENT:

Term employees are nonpermanent appointments set up for greater than one year, but not more than four years. Term appointments do not confer status. The first year of a term employee is a trial period. Term employees are subject to termination at any time during the trial period. Term employees are entitled to the same fringe benefits as permanent employees, i.e., health and life insurance, Federal Employees Retirement Systems (FERS), but are not eligible to apply for promotional opportunities.

TEMPORARY EMPLOYMENT:

Temporary employees serve under an initial appointment of one year or less, with the option of a one-year extension. Temporary employees are subject to termination at any time without use of adverse action or reduction-in-force procedures. A temporary appointment does not confer eligibility to be promoted or reassigned to other positions, or the ability to be noncompetitively converted to a career-conditional appointment. Temporary employees are ineligible for health benefits until they complete one year of currently continuous employment, then they may elect health benefits for which they will be charged the full premium. Temporary employees are not entitled to life insurance and retirement benefits.
